Dublin BOS Urges Careful Consideration
The impact of the ConVal School District funding formula change.

We, the Selectmen of the Town of Dublin, strongly urge all voters to carefully consider the impact on tax assessments of the proposed ConVal School District amendment to the funding formula.

At present, the towns in the school district are assessed their share of ConVal annual funding based on a 50/50 split between total equalized valuation (TEV) and average daily membership (ADM). (ADM is the average number of students the town is educating in the school district; TEV is the equalized valuation of the property we pay property taxes on.)

The proposed change to the funding formula would result in a 60/40 split between TEV and ADM – a change that would hit towns with high property values and low student numbers the hardest; Dublin is one of those towns. The increase in Dublin’s share of the ConVal School District’s funding would increase significantly should this funding formula change pass.

For the 2018-2019 school year, Dublin’s tax assessment share of the School District’s costs was $3,340,326 on an average student population of 148.32 ADM. This equates to a tax assessment of $22,521 per student. The overall school district tax assessment was $31,781,485 on an ADM of 2140.73 for an average assessment of $14,846 per student. As you can see, Dublin is taxed well in excess of the average for every student we send to school in the district.

Forum Report: ConVal Consolidation & Issues
An overview of the School District articles relating to Dublin.

BY LUCY SHONK

Residents attended a Forum on February 13 at the Dublin Community Center to discuss ConVal consolidation and other school-related issues. To help clarify the upcoming Warrant Articles on the ConVal ballot, we had Bernd Foecking, School Board Representative for Dublin along with Nicole Pease, Teaching Principal of Dublin Consolidated School, and Karen Niemela, Treasurer of the DCS parent Teacher Organization.

They indicated there are five articles that everyone should become familiar with before voting on March 12.

Update from the School Board
A focus on the School District’s proposed operating budget.

BY BERND FOECKING

Before the election [March 12], I want to address the ConVal budget. The Contoocook Valley (ConVal) School Board approved a $48,128,007 proposed operating budget for the 2019-2020 school year. We are recommending adoption of this budget by the public. This budget represents a “maintenance of efforts” approach in order to meet obligations to our students and staff; no significant new programs have been added.

The 1.8% increase in this proposed budget (compared to the current year) is primarily due to contracted services: health care, retirement, and transportation. If the proposed budget is not accepted, by simple majority, the District and School Board must cut almost $1.25 million from it to implement the $46,878,781 default budget.

When March arrives and winter begins to wind down, we start to think about spring. Our children's programs will begin with learning about birds of New England and ways to keep them fed until the ground thaws. We will be making bird feeders to hang in our backyards and hand-print cardinals to display.

Later in the month we'll talk about gardening and get our hands dirty painting terra cotta pots and planting seeds to take home. Some books we'll be reading this month are Our Tree, Winter Birds, Kate and The Beanstalk, Who Knows When Winter Goes, and The Gardener.

Book Buddies meets on Tuesdays, after school, from 3:45 to 4:45. Story Time meets on Wednesday mornings from 9:30-10:30 am. Snacks are provided. Book Buddies will not meet on March 12 due to no school that day.

Everyone looks forward to the beginning of Daylight Savings Time and the first day of spring, but the rest of the month can move quite slowly. Browse through the display of books on inventions and inventors. Alexander Graham Bell was born in March 1847 and invented the telephone. Phones may have improved, but his vision of people talking across distances transformed communication. Ask anyone what Benjamin Franklin invented and they'll probably answer the lightning rod. But did you know he invented something many of you use when you visit the library?

Come solve the mystery. Children's Poetry Day is March 21, and we will have some of our collection on display—as well as books about space.

In fact, Dublin's tax assessment is the second highest in the district on a per-student basis. Using 60/40 TEV to ADM instead of the current 50/50 split, Dublin's tax assessment for the 2018-2019 school year would have been $3,529,264, an increase of 5.7%. This would push Dublin's per-student assessment to $23,795 while the district average would remain the same, taking Dublin's tax assessment per student from 151.7% of the average to 160.3%. Future funding years would see a similar increase. Dublin is already assessed well above the district average for each student educated, and this proposed change would further exacerbate that imbalance.

A comprehensive February 2017 study conducted by the Business Administrator of the ConVal School District looked at the funding formula and concluded that the current 50/50 split between ADM and TEV “…appears to be the most equitable way to apportion the costs of the District…” The study recommended retaining the current funding formula.

Since little has changed since 2017, it would seem that the current funding formula continues to be the most equitable way to fund the ConVal School District and voters should carefully consider whether a change is necessary or appropriate.

Article 5 seeks to raise $808,000 to add bus routes that allow the middle schools and high school to begin one hour later. (This sum is not included in the operating budget).

Article 12 (renumbered Article 11 on the ballot) directs the School Board to submit to voters a comprehensive analysis and implementation plan detailing financial, educational, and social impacts that any school closure might have on both students and towns prior to proposing to the voters any plan for any school closure in the ConVal School District (recommended by the School Board).

Article 13, submitted by petition, would call for elimination of the two Middle Schools... so that there are eight elementary schools with grades K-6, and one high school with grades 7-12 (not recommended by the School Board).

Excerpts of these warrant articles were taken from the full ballot; please refer to http://schoolboard.convalsd.net/budget/ for complete details.

LUCY SHONK is reporting on the Dublin Community Center Forum.

This default budget will result in significant cuts in student programming, a loss of 6.5 positions from the high school and middle school, as well as a freeze to important facility improvements.

The ConVal School Board has specified the following programmatic cuts in order to help meet the default budget: Cornucopia program; New Hampshire Dance Institute (NHD1); fresh fruits and vegetable program at the elementary schools; fees for both Advanced Placement (AP) testing and Running Start classes; girls and boys ice hockey, golf, spirit team, and freshman boys basketball; summer programming at both middle schools and the high school; Quest, a week-long summer adventure camp; 5th block at the high school; district arts integration and enrichment — special art opportunities on top of traditional programming.

We feel these losses will be as unpopular in the ConVal community as they are at the SAU and Board levels. There are new statutory requirements limiting the development of the default budget — and there are few places in the budget to trim. Everything that would not significantly affect the education our district children has already been cut in previous years.

Currently, there are no items that can be cut without creating a deficit in our schools. As a result, the ConVal School Board highly recommends adoption of the proposed operating budget.

For further understanding of school budget development and taxpayer contributions, please visit http://schoolboard.convalsd.net/budget. We are in the process of posting detailed articles that further explain this process and how our budget is where it is today. As always, we welcome public attendance at all of our meetings. Taxpayers were all invited to attend District Meeting Part I, Deliberative Session, which was held on February 6, in the high school gymnasium. Thank you all.

Broadband Meeting Saturday, March 2

As reported last month, the Dublin Broadband Committee has completed research and will present a report identifying the issues related to a lack of broadband in Dublin.

Very few locations in Dublin can reach the speeds required (25 Mbps download speed; 3 Mbps upload speed) on a regular basis. Many premises do not have access to this speed at all.

Certainly there is not universal access to broadband. A lack of sufficient broadband has significant impact on education, commerce, health, and real estate, not to mention cultural activities. In sum, broadband performance at today’s standards and expectations is essential to our daily lives and to our town’s viability and health.

This initial study identifies the issues and potential solutions. It addresses the potential costs and provider proposals for funding solutions. There are no easy answers – and some difficult decisions to contemplate. A presentation of the information will be on March 2, in the lower level of the Dublin Town Hall, at 9 am.

The Broadband Committee is composed of Carole Monroe, Rebecca Landry, Larry Rua, Sturdy Thomas, Walter Snitko, and Peter Drake Underkoffler.

Raylynmor Opera’s 24th Season

Focusing on the Spanish influence in opera.

BY RICK MACMILLAN

For its 24th Season, Raylynmor Opera continues its focus on the influence of Spanish culture in opera with an intimate recital entitled Songs of Spain, to be produced at 6 pm on March 31 at Reynolds Hall in Peterborough. This diverse and probing program will include highlights from Spain’s finest composers, several of their Latin American counterparts, and several selections from non-Spanish composers who have been inspired by the alluring Spanish culture.

Songs of Spain will seek to air of some of these neglected masterpieces by marrying song and history, performed by Jazimina MacNeil and Artistic Director Ben Robinson, accompanied by noted guitarist Jose Lezcano.

For our season finale, Raylynmor returns to Seville, or rather, to a ritzy spa and health club named “Seville.” Set in the 1990s in Miami’s South Beach, this production will mark the premiere of a new English libretto by Artistic Director Ben Robinson that places Rossini’s opera The Barber of Seville in a contemporary setting.

While adhering to Rossini’s music and the original tale by the playwright Pierre Beaumarchais, this modern setting will keep the madcap pace and farce of the original opera. This fully staged production with orchestra will be presented May 17–19 at the Peterborough Players. We aim to entertain the whole family with vocal pyrotechnics and the antics of opera’s most famous barber and his friends.

Tickets at www.raylynmor.com or at the Toadstool Bookshop.

RICK MACMILLAN is President of Raylynmor Opera.

IN mid-January, at the Capitol Center for The Arts in Concord, the New Hampshire Theatre Alliance recognized Dublin musician Tom Martin, pianist and musical director, for his work at the Peterborough Players.

Tom was awarded Best Musical Direction of a Professional Production for The Drowsy Chaperone, which was presented by the Players last summer. This is one of 23 categories in which productions are adjudicated for the NHTA by member adjudicators. Awards are given in each category in three divisions – Youth Theatre, Community Theatre, and Professional Theatre.

This year, the Players had finalist nominations in 23 categories in the two eligible plays from the summer: An Inspector Calls and The Drowsy Chaperone. They received awards in eight of the categories, including Best Professional Production of a Musical, and Best Professional Production of a Comedy/Drama.

Tom is Director of Music for the Dublin Community Church, musical director for Keene State College Department of Theatre and Dance, pianist for the Keene Jazz Orchestra and other ensembles, private instructor of piano and voice, freelance pianist, and very active in musical theater as musical director and keyboardist. He is also a composer and arranger.

Recent productions for Tom included A Chorus Line at Dublin School (February 21-24) and Newsies at Monadnock Regional High School in Swanzey.

Tom returns to the Peterborough Players this summer to musically direct their production of She Loves Me.
Winter News from DCS
BY NICOLE PEASE

February brought a variety of activities to DCS. Our students continued to participate in the Friday Winter Fun Days and either attended the Ski/Snowboard Program at Crotched Mountain coordinated by our wonderful PTO, or they stayed at school for some extra recess and indoor fun. The PTO had planned for us to be able to snowshoe and explore with Susie Spikol from the Harris Center, but Mother Nature worked against us. We hope to be able to have Susie lead some spring hikes for the whole school.

The middle of the month was really busy with an afternoon filled with Science learning provided by Jesse Marcum. Lots of hands-on learning makes for happy students!

DCS staff decided to celebrate Valentine’s Day and the 100th Day of School on February 14. We kicked off the fun with buddy reading. Our students were challenged with reading 100 books. They readily met and easily surpassed the goal! We ended the month with a whole school Science Night where students showcased their learning with their family.

We are looking forward to March with the onset of Spring. The unpredictable winter weather made for a lack of sledding despite our awesome playground hill. We are also planning for the return of the FACTS (Famous Artists Come to School) program where local residents teach our students about different artists. Thanks to Vance Finch for coordinating and the volunteers for bringing the artists to life.

The annual Movie Night will take place on March 22 (5:30 pm for pizza, movie begins at 6 pm). It is such a treat to have families come together to enjoy pizza, popcorn, and a movie! Thanks to the DCS PTO and all that volunteers do for our students.

Art Day on March 15 is sponsored by the Arts Enrichment Program in coordination with Art Teacher Andy Schultz. Students engage in many different artistic activities.

We welcome visitors to our wonderful school, please just give a call first at 563-8332.

Kindergarteners are wanted. If you know of a child that will be 5 years old before September 30, please have their family contact our school.

Please don’t forget to vote on March 12 and come to Town Meeting on March 16.

Artwork on View by the Winchester Sisters

Recent drawings and paintings by Liz Winchester-Larson and Harriet Winchester will be in the gallery through March 26, with an opening reception Friday, March 1, from 5 to 7 pm.

Elizabeth and Harriet Winchester began drawing and painting as youngsters, first in New Ipswich, and then in Hollis, NH. By the early ’70s, each had earned BFA degrees, Liz from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, NY, and Harriet from Rhode Island School of Design, in Providence, RI. Since 1995 they have enjoyed showing their art together.

Liz Winchester-Larson (at right), an artist and printmaker for more than 40 years, enjoys using colored pencil. Applying many layers, she achieves rich color and intricate detail. She is a member of the Colored Pencil Society of America, the Monadnock Area Artists Association, and the Saxtons River Art Guild.

Harriet Winchester began exhibiting her art in 1985, winning many awards. For more than 20 years, she worked with pastels before switching to oil painting. Working in a realistic style, she enjoys both still-life subjects and New England landscapes. Harriet is a member of the Nashua Area Artists Association.

Dance Fitness Winter Session

The winter session of Dance Fitness with Deb Giaimo continues through March 25. Classes meet every Monday from 5:30 to 6:30 pm. It is a moderate intensity, low-impact aerobic dance workout done to popular songs from the ’50s to the present. A diversity of different rhythms keeps participants moving and burning calories. No dance experience is necessary. Deb encourages newcomers to try a complimentary class to see what it’s all about. Bring clean workout shoes with you. The cost for four classes is $28; and $10 drop-in. For more information, call Deb at 563-8648 or email her at fredebg@myfairpoint.net.

Qigong Classes

The main intent of Qigong, an Eastern exercise discipline for restoring and balancing the body, is to promote good health and longevity. The exercises and structured forms use repetition as a means of relaxing and opening the body and mind, so it is easy to follow along. New participants may join at any time, no experience necessary. Wear comfortable clothes and supportive shoes.

Single classes are $15 and payment for 4 weeks in March is $48. Classes meet on Wednesdays from noon to 1 pm. Feel free to come try out a class for free.

For information, contact Ginnette Groome, LMT, at 603-313-9828 or email her at ammatwirl@aol.com.

Historical Society to Host Humorist
Rebecca Rule will speak at annual potluck supper.

Rebecca Rule, a full-time writer, humorist, and storyteller will be the guest speaker at the Dublin Historical Society’s Potluck Supper on Friday, March 8, in the Dublin Community Church Hall. The supper begins at 6 pm, the program at 7 pm. All are welcome.

Rebecca’s book, Moved and Seconded: New Hampshire Town Meeting the Present, the Past, and the Future, will be the basis of her talk – a timely presentation as the Dublin Town Meeting is March 16.

Town Meeting, a sacred institution in New Hampshire, has rituals, traditions, and a unique history. For three years, noted New Hampshire author Rebecca Rule has been gathering stories, attending town meetings, and writing this book.

You’ll meet the characters who keep the drama cracking, from silent knitters to rabble-rousers, from deep-rooted hoary historians to transplants, from across-the-board cutters to homespun philosophers. You’ll dip into the literature — poems, novels, short stories, and essays — some by famous writers and some by writers who may be new to you.

You’ll sample the legendary dry humor as well as the down-home wisdom, which inspires well beyond the walls of the Olde Meeting House.

Rebecca will have books available for purchase after the presentation.

All are welcome at this free Potluck Supper and presentation. Bring a main dish, side, salad, or dessert to share. Should the weather be inclement, the snow date is the following Friday, March 15, at the same time and location. If you are uncertain about the conditions, please call 563-8545 to hear the recorded message on Friday.

Their visit was packed with different activities including college trips, attending DCA classes, decorating cookies, celebrating Christmas, skiing, and taking a trip to Boston.
Owls Begin Nesting

BY TOM WARREN

With spring six weeks away, two bird species have already begun domestic responsibilities. In the Monadnock Region, owls are the first to begin building nests, incubating eggs, and feeding young.

Both the Barred Owl and the Great Horned Owl select nest sites in February. Males generally select a territory in late autumn and a nest site in February. Mated pairs remain in the same territory all year. The male selects the nest site. Hooting of both species occurs in late February and early March.

The Great Horned Owl in this area uses tree nests of other birds such as hawks, crows, squirrels, and Great Blue Herons, but will also use tree cavities, snags of broken trees and wood platforms, and occasionally a building or barn. The most commonly used nest is that of the Red-tailed Hawk. Barred Owls often use holes in trees or owl boxes.

Neither species builds its own nest — but they will spruce up an old nest. Nests are lined with bark, feathers, animal fur, and leaves. By the end of the nesting season, the nest deteriorates to a few sticks and therefore, few nests are used in the next season.

The normal clutch has 2-3 eggs and are laid 2-4 days apart. The eggs hatch in about 33 days. The female incubates the eggs while the male brings food to her at the nest.

In the case of the Great Horned Owl, skunk is their favorite food — so it is not unusual to smell the scent of a skunk near a nest this time of year. Mice and birds are preferred by the Barred Owl.

Females can incubate eggs at 35 degrees below zero and eggs have survived at 25 degrees below zero for up to 20 minutes while the female takes a break from incubation duties.

Young birds rapidly increase their weight from 35 grams at birth (0.77 lbs.) to 1000 grams (2.2 lbs.) for females and 800 grams (1.76 lbs.) for males in 25 days. Females brood the young for two weeks. Food is brought to the nest by the male. The female will tear it apart into small pieces. If one adult owl dies, the remaining adult can successfully take over to raise the young. At seven weeks, young owls are capable of short flights. They leave the nest in about 50 days. In the Monadnock Region, they leave the nest around May 15.

By late October and November, urged by the adults, young owls have left their natal territory.

In years of low mouse or squirrel populations (not this year), many eggs do not hatch and many young do not survive. About every third year females decide that motherhood requires a rest and do not lay eggs.

The Barred Owls you see on gray snowy days in February and March are males seeking prey for incubating females. Great Horned Owls are totally nocturnal predators, and thus more difficult to view.
